

Good Counsel College hosted the latest leg of the TRI equestrian league on Sunday in Wexford equestrian Centre.

All classes were on offer and the day commenced with the Cooney Furlong sponsored Primary teams. This produced some excellent jumping and the mixed team from Ballindaggin, Riverchapel and Gaelscoil Arklow, Toffee ridden by Freya Fitzgerald, Ollie Lia Brennan) Tom Sparrow (Kayla Brennan) and Nova (Lauren Timmons) were victorious ahead of St Brigid's Grange NS/ Tullow NS, Pablo (Una Farrell) Willow (Lauren Bailey) Paddy (Cillin Tobin) Bailey (Muireann Tooher) 0/0/83.29 in second place and Screen NS teammates, Bubbles (Kate Kelly) SHL Little Rocket (Ellen Cash) and Bubbles (Faye Kelly) in third. Rathangan NS was the best turned out team.

The 55cm class was won in fine style by Cian Cusack on Henry for Butlerstown NS, ahead of Mai Donovan on Delilah for The Rower in second and Shannon Griffith riding Mable for Screen NS. in third. The EII 70cm league class produced a win and ten points for Kilrane NS's, Hazel Slattery riding Brioelle Mist with Shanbo Hazel's Boy and Julie McDonald for Holy Cross claimed eight points for second and Patrick Fitzgerald on 63AM representing Faithlegg NS was third.

The EII novice teams sponsored on the day by Glanbia was very well supported and it was the red team from local school Loretto Wexford that claimed the first-place rosettes. Represented by Loreto Faye Murphy on Leo, Curraghmore Sparrow and Ashley Durack, Kate Walsh on Rathmanna Check and Tomoka spots ridden by Kiera Crowther. The team saw off rivals St Declan's community College riders, Keira Reilly on Zeus (Kiera Reilly) Aoife Lenihan on Dudes Law, Darragh Walsh riding Hugo and Annadale Royal Mist and Conor Cusack, who had to settle for second and the Loretto Wexford Blue team of Jess Murphy on Phoebe Lilly Mae Berry on Skylanna Scatman, Katie O'Connor on Alkadream and Cora Finn on Shakespeare Romeo Montague who were third. The best turned out prize went to Loretto Wexford White.

The fun novice class went the way of Killealy NS's Aimee Bowe on Tincey. Sean Bishop on Ted and Ava Donovan on Nellie representing St. Peter's and St Mary's New Ross were second and third.

The Equieire 90cm qualifier produced qualifying rounds for Good Council College pupil Aaron Mc Phillips on Daylight, Kilkenny College representative Lily Redmond on Best Buddie, Newbridge College's Mia Browne on Basil brush, St Declan's, Conor Cusack on Killowen Dasher and Loretto Wexford riders Faye Murphy on Atlantic Charm and Kate Walsh on Rathmanna Check.

The open classes concluded a busy day's show jumping and the Presentation Wexford team of Charlie (Isabelle Barry) SIA (Eva Mulligan) Cody (Mia Meyler) and Star light (Kate Cullen) 0 was victorious in the TRI equestrian Open team's class. The team from St Marys New Ross, Murphy (Anna Lambert) Sandy (Hannah Langton) and Mike (Emma Kehoe) were runners up. Third place went to Gorey Community School, represented by Des (Joe Dunne) Billy (Ciara O'Connor) Sparrow (Lauren Spencer) and Abbey Brooke Aurora (Angelica Mc Gee) with Dominican College Wicklow in fourth.

Colaiste Bride Carew's Sophie Wilson on Scarlett Cruise Won the TRI open individual class with Loretto Wexford rider Kate O'Leary on East Coast Pennywise in second and Blackwater Community School's, Molly Kenneally on Kilcully Rocky in third.

Final class of the Kilkelly day was the HIS 1.10cm class and this produced two qualifying rounds, for Gorey Community School' Ciara O'Connor on Only Dun and Angelika McGee on Abbeybrooke Aurora.

Action moves to Barnadown this weekend where Gorey Community School are the hosts.