

Wesley College victorious at Broadmeadow.

The first TRI Equestrian sponsored Interschools league event to be held after the Christmas break was hosted by Broadmeadow Equestrian Centre in Ashbourne. Wesley College represented by Pippa Durham on Sky Dolly, Tilly Shaw on Bushmill's Fionn, Abby O'Sullivan on Duchess and Holly Micklem on Sunny Girl won the TRI Open Team event in fine style, being the only team to finish with a clean sheet. Best of the rest was Ard Scoil na Troinoide who claimed the runner up slot ahead of St Gerards in third. Ardscoil's team members were Natalia Biczak on Jack, Abbey Durham, Rachel Kelly on Punch and Paul Kehoe on The Big Lad. St Gerards was represented by Kirsty Connole on Zazu Van Terhoftede, Mily O'Loughlin on Comical Con, Harry Fitzpatrick on Sapphire and Jennifer Robinson on My Jasper. Fourth fifth and sixth places went to Maynooth, King's Hospital and Borris Vocational.

Wesley College rider Pippa Durham was also victorious in the TRI Open Individual this time partnered with Jim Delaney. Jennifer Robinson from St Gerards on My Jasper claimed second ahead of Georgie Connolly Carew riding Coolteen Diamond for King's Hospital in third.

St Gerards rider Kirsty Connole riding Zazu Van Terhoftede claimed the HSI 110 qualifier. Runner up position went to Paul Kehoe on The Big Lad. The remaining qualifying places were claimed by Mark Finnerty and Al Action, James Kavanagh and Tankardstown Golddust, Ellen Murphy and Cuille Mhuire Cello and Pippa Durham riding Jim Delaney.

The novice riders then took to the stage and St Gerards novice team of Grace O'Brien, Georgina Wilkinson, Isabelle O'Neill and Emma Ward put in a great effort to claim victory ahead of Maynooth Secondary school and Our Lady's School, Castleblaney. Hannah Whelan riding Drummin Diamond Lad claimed the novice individual title.
