The teams from East Glendalough school were firing on all cylinders to see off tough opposition to claim victory in both the TRI Equestrian Open team event and the EII novice team event at Loreto Wexford's show, held in Wexford Equestrian Centre on Sunday the 31st October. Bad weather did not hamper Firebolt and Robert Cherry, Kingcarra Mia and Anna Hudson, Rusheenduff Patrick and Conor Doyle) and Shergar Rose with Anna Morrissey, in the TRI Equestrian Open Teams event. They saw off rivals St Declan's Community College, represented by Hannah Curran on Knocknaboren Velvet, Eabha Mansfield on Rosie Eabha Mansfield, Coofin Vinviendi and Clodagh Shanahan and Whitethorn Looneys Rock and Gearoid Bolger, and Presentation College's Mia Meyler riding Cody, Michaela Walsh on Tommy, Katie Cullen on Lady Starlight and Eva Mulligan on Sia, who finished 2nd and 3rd. Borris Vocational School, Gorey Community School and Colaiste Bhríde Carnew claimed the remaining league points for 4th, 5th and 6th places.

There was a similar line up for 1st and 2nd in the novice team event, with the East Glendalough team of Mayfield Boy and Skyla Nally, Pixie Magic ridden by Sarah Curry, Rosie Coad riding Sunny Girl and Holiday Last Stand and Anna Morrissey, finishing just ahead of the St Declan's Community College novice team, Hugo ridden by Darragh Walsh, Pretty Neat ridden by Lucy Jane Reilly, Sarah Jackman on Quinlan's Crystal and Dudes Law with Aoife Lenihan. Host school Loreto Wexford placed third.

The team members were Lilly Mae Berry on Skylanna Seatman, Leo and Faye Murphy, Kate Walsh riding Rathmanna Check and the Jessie Murphy partnered Phoebe. Remaining league points went to FCJ Bunclody, Presentation College Wexford and Gorey Community School.

St Declan's Community College went one better in the TRI Equestrian Open Individual league event when Knocknahorgan Velvet and Hannah Curran claimed victory ahead of St. Marys New Ross rider Ava Donovan riding June. In 3rd place was East Glendalough representative, Ana Hudson on Kincora Mia. Colaiste Bhríde riders Chloe Massey on Call me Callie and Galtee Shadow with Sarah Sheppard completed the line-up. Ciara Ryan from Rockwell college on Tequila Ruby and Ciara O'Connor from Gorey Community school on Ashwood qualified for the HSI 1.10 cm. final.

In the EII 90 qualifier St. Paul's, Monasterevin rider Penny Kelly on Dunbeggan Dreamer won the EII 90cm qualifier ahead of Jamie Browne from Rockwell College, riding Tequila Alex, Gorey Community college riders were 3rd and 4th. Mischa partnered by Holly Spencer finished just ahead of Maria Dunne on Glenny. The remaining qualifiers were Neville Boyle on Drumlane Oscar for Dominican College Wexford and Bridgetown School rider Owen Carroll riding Joe.

Rosslare Strand Ss and Kilrane NS combined to win the Primary team's event. Charley Mai Murphy on Bbs Paddington Noah Murphy on BBs Wildflower joined Eva Murrell riding Rubble (Eva Murrell and Hannah Rose Roche on Laffin's April ahead of Screen Ns represented by Bubbles and Faye Kelly, Little Rockey and Ellen Cash and Bubbles ridden by Mary Kate Kelly) Piercestown Ns were third ahead of. Jack Codd riding Kato Star Joe Codd on Ballypride May, Tommy Codd on Bally Pip C and Caldrum Columbo ridden by Sarah O Reilly represented Piercestown NS.

There was also a novice 80cm event which was won by Presentation Wexford's Ellen Goggin riding Bob and a primary 55cm class where Eimear White on Ivy from Scoil Diarmuida Castledermot headed the line-up.

The action moves to Warrington Equestrian Centre this weekend where Kilkenny College host an event confined to Secondary Schools. There will be TRI Equestrian open teams and individuals, EII novice teams and an EII novice 90 qualifier.
