

Report.

Cavan equestrian Centre November 2014

Newbridge College claimed both team competitions during the latest round of the Equestrian Interschools Ireland league was held in Cavan Equestrian centre on Saturday 29th. The open team event was well supported and was won in fine style by Newbridge, represented by Primadonna Girl (Karen Casey), Kippure Steepleview Jack (Caoimhe Sweeney), Killington Lady (Amy Carroll) and Ballydavid Souz (Jack Ross). Second place went to the Ursuline College, Sligo, team of Kinagrelly Queen (Jennifer Burke), Crunchie (Elisa Schweiger O'Connor), Black Beauty (Emily Burke) and Birdhill Jack (Isabel Burke) Loreto College, Cavan, represented by Imperial Cloverhill (Alice Clarke), Keogans Boy (Orla Henry), Redhill Lad (Caoimhe Bogue) and Ashfield Victoria Sparrow (Sarah Donnelly) claimed third ahead of Mean Scoil Mhuire, Longford represented by Ashfield Malibu (Viola Callaghan), Bobby (Rebecca York), Corbeagh (Aisling McGreal) and Callistus (Abbie Moloney). The team from Ardscoil na Trionoide: Blue (Kelly Moore), Apollo (Paul Kehoe) and Punch (Rachel Kelly) claimed fifth with Ballymahon Vocational School representatives, Ardagh Airbourne (Thomas Whyte), Kilglass Lady Jane (Aoife Burke), Aughnakeragh Tommy (Eve Foster) and Mosstown Dolly (Ciara Dennigan) The Best Turned Out prize went to Newbridge College

The Individual Open was won by Ardagh Bobby ridden by Thomas Whyte) who just pipped Ellen Forster riding Veronicas Boy. Bellas Money ridden by Poppy Connolly-Carew claimed third followed by Morgan Cummins riding North Star), Krafty Meadow ridden by Grainne Gibbons and Black Beauty ridden by Emily Burke from Ursuline Sligo.

The novice events followed commencing with the team event.

Once again victory went to Newbridge. The College team of HP Chocolate Delight (Caragh Sweeney), Jacksy (Alanna Kelly), Kella Blue (Sarah Buckley) and Camlira Pride (Anna Kelly) saw off the Loreto College Mullingar team of Killerisk Amanda (Catriona McVeigh), Misty (Niamh O'Mahony) and Hector (Blaitin Keene). Third place went to Scoil Mhuire, Trim represented by Anna (Lauren Andrews), Flicka (Grace O'Connor) and Ceasar (Ella O'Byrne), with Moyne Community School: Esker Beauty (Jenny Reehill), Bailey (Liam Donohoe) and Knockerogery (David Donohoe) in fourth.

The Individual Novice was also claimed by Newbridge when College Alannah Kelly) riding jacksey rode to victory ahead of Jane Field on dun master in second with Misty ridden by Kathleen O'Mahony in third. Venus (Jane Field), Tyson (John Alyward O'Connor) and Beechhill Orlagh (Niamh Gorman), claimed the remaining place

The Individual 70cm was shared between Simba (Eirinn Lynch); Melody (Rachel Connolly); Maxican Honey (Lucy Hogan); Tyson (John Alfred O'Connor); Sally (Jamie Clarke) Butlersbridge National School and Crème Brulee (Camryn Clarke) Butlersbridge National School;

The final class of the day was an extra event. Run as an individual accumulator Tara (Daniel Fitzgerald riding Tara claimed the prize followed by Krafty Meadow ridden by Grainne Gibbons), Loughville Ranger ridden by Orla Henry), Mistreet Trigger ridden by Eimear King and Gold Rush Lad partnered by Sarah-Jane Feeney.

The action moves this weekend to Broadmeadow, where Brian Duff and his team are the hosts.