EII Interschools Wexford Equestrian Centre

Loreto Wexford pupils shine.

Wexford equestrian Centre hosted an EII novice and primary Inter schools' competition as part of its Halloween celebrations on Bank Holiday Monday. This was well supported locally with 30 novice and primary teams competing and also a well supported primary 70cm class-part of the new EII Individual league.

The EII novice teams' event was won in fine style by local school Loreto Wexford, represented by Amy Griffith riding Apple Butter, Aoife Creane on Razjazza Bella), Katie O'Connor on BBS Colour Scheme and Kiera Crowther and Tomoko Spots. Presentation Wexford, whose team consisted of Eva Mulligan on Teddy, Niamh Ryan on Kiltulla Lady, Kate Moran riding Scooby and Elise Cahill on Kiltlealy Faro took runner up position. Loreto also took third and fourth; Lilly Mai Berry on Skyscanna Seatman, Faye Murphy on Leo, Katie Walsh riding Rathmanna Check and Jessie Murphy and Phoebe were placed ahead of Cora Finn and Ballybritt Cashel, Caoimhe Murphy riding Shadows Knight), Ashley Durack on Carraghmore Sparrow and Edie Codd on Rossie delight, showing the equestrian strength growing in the Wexford school. Bridgetown Vocational school and St. Mary's New Ross were 5th and 6th and were awarded 3rd and 4th place league points for their efforts. The remaining league points were gained by Creagh College and St. Mary's Arklow.

In the primary ring the teams' and individual competitions were hotly contested with encouragement from supporters.

The Primary individual league class was claimed by Julie Mc Donald riding Shanbo Hazel Boy for Holycross School, Tramore. In second place Broele Mist ridden by Hazel Slattery and representing Kilrane NS pipped Oisin Phelan on Belle for Scoil Diarmada into third., Eryn O'Reilly from Murrintown NS. Patrick F. O'Connor from Faithlegge NS. And Julianna Duffy from St Kenny's NS. Claimed the remaining placings and league points.

The primary teams' class, whilst not a league, is always popular with all to play for on the day and Kiltlealy Ns represented by Aimee Bowe (Titchy Strider), Oran Bowe (High Hopes), Jodi Brennan (flash) Bobby Bowe (Prince of Ashwood) saw off all its rivals to claim the prize. The Piercestown national school team of Jack Codd and Kato Star, Sarah O'Reilly riding Caldrum Columbo, Joe Codd on Ballypride May and Tommy Codd and Bally C Pip was second with the combined team from Faithlegge and Holycross national schools in third. Julie McDonald Shanbo Hazels Boy the 70cm individual winner partnered Matilda Ormonde and Charlies Friend, Patrick Fitzgerald O'Connor on 63AM and Charlie Corcoran Lucy's Scamp for this team. The minor placings went to Rosslare Strand/Kilrane, Screen/St. Patricks and Kilmore national school.

There were lots of other fun classes on offer including a spooky fancy-dress class.

The action stays in Wexford this weekend as Loreto Wexford hosts its own Halloween show and a full range of TRI, HSI and EII classes, leagues and qualifiers are being held.
